

Otto for Education
Doug Otto

Long Beach Unified School District Board of Education

For Immediate Release

Date: January 16th, 2020

Contact: Matt Miller, matthew.miller.r@gmail.com

The Los Angeles County Democratic Party Endorses
Doug Otto for LBUSD Board of Education
Otto Scores Major Endorsement

(Long Beach) – Today, Doug Otto, candidate for the Long Beach Unified School District Board of Education, announces the endorsement of the Los Angeles County Democratic Party.

In announcing their endorsement, Chair Mark Gonzalez stated:

“Doug Otto has proven that he has the experience and values to serve on the Long Beach School Board.” Mark Gonzalez continued, “Doug’s commitment to education shows that he will empower every student to thrive and will continue the progress of our schools. I encourage all Democrats to support Doug Otto for Long Beach Unified School District Board of Education.”

Doug Otto responded to this recent endorsement:

“I am truly honored to receive the endorsement of the Los Angeles County Democratic Party.” Otto continued, “I will always support the Democratic values of equality and inclusion, and I will continue these core beliefs as a member of the LBUSD Board of Education. I am committed to giving every student the best opportunity to succeed.”

Doug Otto is a life-long resident of Long Beach who has attended Long Beach public schools and is member of the Long Beach Community College Board of Trustees. As an education supporter, he has expanded student access to educational services and has helped improve student success. He has also served as a leader in civic and non-profit organizations in the Long Beach community, including as a law adjunct professor for 16 years at the Southwestern University of Law. Doug is married to Dr. Freda Hinsche Otto, retired Asst. Vice-Chancellor of the California State University. Together they have five children and nine grandchildren, two of whom are currently attending Long Beach schools.

###